Another proposition favorably acted upon was to form purely Catholic Committees to work among the members of that faith. In fact the movement is mainly a Catholic one. The Pope is taking a great interest in it and in this connection it may be stated that, according to a common report, the announcement of the beatification of Columbus will be followed by the issuance of the papal bull.

THE BURKHALTER FAILURE

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The failure of C. Burhalter & Co. continued to be a matter of remark and speculation yesterday. The st-

I can only say that this is an honest failure. The members of the firm will be penniless. They have saved nothing for themselves. Everything has gone on the attempt to keep up the business. The honest was an old established one, and they were proud of its good name. They were ambitious to do a large business. The proceedings now will be in the ordinary channels. There are no ideas

But there will be an inventory of effects and the assignee will divide his brother and the creditors will get what they want. There is no attempt to mislead or to cheat the creditors. The assignment was made in their interest. A consultation was held here in my office Wednesday morning with a view to finding some way to raise money and to tide the firm over. The assignment was proposed then for the first time, it being the best and fairest thing for the creditors. It was not a statement made as soon as possible. I cannot tell when it will be given out.

MRS. HARRISON'S CONDITION.

A Slight Change for the Better Reported This Morning.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 22.—A more cheerful feeling prevailed at the White House this morning as a result of the slight improvement in Mrs. Harrison's condition. Dr. Gardner visited the patient about 8 o'clock and reported to the President that Mrs. Harrison was undoubtedly a little stronger than she was yesterday morning. He attributes the improvement to the fact that she had slept well (for a person in her condition during the night, and had also been able to take a little more nourishment than usual. The doctor said that she seemed easier and more comfortable generally this morning, and he was satisfied that no material change in her condition would occur during the day at least. At any rate he will not make an

The President is understood as expressing his appreciation of the anxiety manifested for authentic news as to the course of Mrs. Harrison's illness, but at the same time he desires that the family may be spared, as far as possible, the pain caused by the constant inquiries called out by sensational statements and rumors of death. Neither the grief-stricken family of the gentle lady, nor the attending physician see any reason to anticipate a sudden fatality. The probabilities point to a gradual termination of Mrs. Harrison's illness. At the same time, the probabilities point to its pursuing the customary inquiring course—a little better one day, a little worse the next—incidentals to such cases, for days and perhaps weeks to come.

DENNIS F. HANKS.

Death Claims a Boyhood Friend of Abre

PARIS, Ill., Oct. 22.—One of the oldest citizens of this place, and probably the oldest man in Illinois, is no more. At the age of 92 Dennis F. Hanks died yesterday evening at the residence of his daughter Mrs. Nance

Hoff, at which place he has made his home for the past three years. Dennis F. Hanks was born on the south fork of Notin's Creek, three miles southeast of Hodginsville, in Hardin County, Ky., May 15, 1799. His parents were natives of Virginia and were among the first settlers in Kentucky. It was in the same neighborhood in Hardin County, Kentucky that Abraham Lincoln was born, he and Mr. Hanks being boys together. Thomas Lincoln, father of Abraham Lincoln, emigrated from Hardin County, Kentucky, to Spencer, Ind., and after a year's residence in Indiana his wife died and he returned to Kentucky, where he subsequently married.

for his second wife Sarah Johnston, whose daughter Dennis F. Hanks afterward married. In all probability Mr. Hanks was Abraham Lincoln's most intimate friend, and nothing pleased the old gentleman more than to discuss the old times when he and Abe were boys together.

Last Night's Ball and Banquet.

The Columbian ball given at Liederkreis hall last evening was quite a social event among the Irish and German residents of the city. In large numbers, Mayor Noonan and wife led the grand march. Later in the evening the cavalry company made several presentations to members who had been over-active and zealous in forming the company. They were J. Ripetto, J. M. Ghio, E. Debonato, C. D. Angelica and Stephen Delacorte. The latter was presented with a medal and Mrs. Angelica with a handsome floral offering for effective aid given the company. There was an elaborate banquet served and dancing was continued until a late hour.

The attention of the United States Circuit Court was devoted this morning to the trial of the case of John Schultz against the Madison Car Co. The plaintiff claims $5,000 damages for the loss of an eye, which he alleges was occasioned by the defective machinery of the company. The case was heard by Judge Phillips, but no verdict was reached, the court adjourning before the testimony was concluded.

TORTURING ECZEMA

Editor Iowa Plaindealer Cured of Insufferable Itching and Pain by the Cuticura Remedies.

No Less Than Five Physicians Consulted—Their Combined Wisdom Followed Without Benefit.

I am 65 years old. In August, 1889, was troubled with the peculiar skin disease of ECZEMA, which was subject to known among medical men as eczema. Its first appearance was near the ankle. It rapidly extended over the lower extremities until my legs were nearly one mass of sores. From legs the trouble extended across the hips, shoulders and the entire length of the arms, the legs and arms greatly swollen, with an itching, burning pain, without cessation. Although the best medical advice attainable was employed, no less than five physicians, the place being consulted and the prescriptions being the result of their combined wisdom, the disease, though apparently checked, would recur in a few days as bad as ever; during its progress my weight fell away about twenty-five pounds. As an experiment I began the use of CUTICURA, following the simple and plain instructions given with the ointment, and in four weeks found myself well, with skin soft and natural in color, the itching and pain entirely relieved. W. R. MEAD, Editor Iowa Plaindealer, Cresco, Io.

ALL READY NOW.

Track Officials Secured by the Madison Racing Association.

ARRANGEMENTS ALL COMPLETED FOR NEXT SATURDAY'S BIG OPENING.

Richard Dwyer Will Do the Starting and Col. Hatch Will Preside in the Judges' Stand—Work of the St. Louis Pitchers—Gossip From the Ring, Turf and Diamond.

The Madison Racing Association management closed negotiations to-day with Richard Dwyer to act as starter and Col. L. S. Hatch to officiate as presiding judge at the association's winter meeting, which will be inaugurated at the association's new course at Madison, next Saturday afternoon. The Post-Dispatch, it will be remembered, announced exclusively the early part of the present week, that the association managers were negotiating with Dwyer and Hatch. The former is in the East at present, and his terms were accepted immediately, as soon as it was decided to secure him. He comes to this city most highly recommended, such well-known turfmen as Col. H. Clay Dittus and many others have given him the Madison managers to give him a trial. Dwyer has had experience in the management of most of the big tracks in the East, having on various occasions handled the flag at Washington, Clifton and Buffalo, and to say that he gave satisfaction, according to Dittus and the rest of the coterie that recommended him, would hardly be expressing it.

Dwyer is at present in New York, but in answer to a telegram the Madison management sent this morning, stating that he was wanted to officiate as starter at this point, he wired to the effect that he would arrive here by Monday or Tuesday.

Col. L. S. Hatch, who has been secured to officiate as presiding judge, at the new course, well known in Western racing circles, will be remembered by his assistance John J. Carter, at the St. Louis Jockey Club's spring meeting and demonstrated thoroughly his ability to hold his own successfully in the position. He is a son of Congressman W. H. Hatch of Hannibal, Mo., and when not employed in his regular capacity during the racing season, confines himself to looking after his stock breeding establishment near Hannibal. Col. Hatch will be assisted in the stand by William C. Christy, well known in local turf circles, who will act as associate judge, the duties of which are, as is well known, to place the second horse. Robert Kerr, also well known in local turf circles, will have the placing of the third horse. There will also be an associate clerk of scales, in which position he will endeavor to show Joe Mulvey, who has made such an enviable record at the course across the river, that he is not the only first-class scales clerk in the West. Starter Dwyer will be accompanied from the East by his staff, and he wires that he will bring along one of the best assistant starters ever seen out West.

The foreign book at the Madison track will be in charge of John G. Hambrick, President of the association, and the active management of the track will be looked after by Secretary Edmund Fitzgerald, who was one of the most successful pool auctioneers on the western turf, and General Manager Cole Ullman, who is a brother of Alexander Ullman, President of the East St. Louis Jockey Club, and Joseph Ullman, who manages the foreign book at Ed Corrigan's track.

Over 100 horses are already quartered at the Madison track. A telegram was received this morning by Madison, Indiana, from the trainer of J. D. Patton's string, which is at present located at Nashville, Tenn., stating that twelve stable hands were required for that stable, which will reach this point next week. Patton's string is one of the strongest in the West. Among the breeders, that will come with the stable to Madison are Estelle, Ethel Gray and the 2-year-old gelding.

Secretary Fitzgerald of the Madison Association will be in charge of the opening scramble, will be successful at the course across the river yesterday. Walter, at 3 to 2, carried a battery in the second event. In the stretch the electricity was applied to him and the result was won by seven lengths.
